

A RIPE OLD AGE.

Mrs. Mary Sligh, Surrounded by Her Relatives and Friends, Celebrates Her 89th Birthday.

Newberry, November 19.—On Monday the children, grand-children and great-grand-children, with other relatives and friends, of Mrs. Mary (Aunt Polly) Sligh met at her home, near Ebenezer church, in honor of her eighty-ninth birthday. There are few indeed who reach that ripe old age. Mrs. Sligh is still very active for one of her age. She loves to talk about the good old times when she was a young girl. She has a splendid memory and it is a pleasure to hear her talk. She is still able to read without difficulty, with the aid of glasses. She has passed the eighty-ninth mile-stone, and if appearances count for anything, she will pass several more. Mrs. Sligh has four children living: Mr. G. McD Sligh, Mrs. Mary McGraw, the widow of Mr. Ben McGraw, Mrs. Carrie Whitaker, the wife of the Rev. H. W. Whitaker, and Mrs. Susannah Schumpert, the wife of J. J. Schumpert, all of whom were present. She has thirty one grand-children living, twenty-nine of whom were present, and fifteen great-grand children who were all there.

The crowd present numbered seventy-five, forty seven of whom were her lineal descendants. Early in the morning a long table was made in the yard, and as the dinner hour drew near the ladies began to busy themselves placing the many good things that had been prepared on the table.

All present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Everybody seemed happy. The day was one of those glorious Indian summer days which seem to lend new beauty to Nature's charms.

I know that all who were present will join me in wishing that Mrs. Sligh will live to celebrate many more birthdays and that they may be celebrated in a manner every bit as enjoyable.

ONE PRESENT.
